

The Messianic Pledge

Whereas the Almighty God, who at sundry times, and in divers manners, has spoken to us, through His prophets (since the world began), and given us information, about who the Messiah would be, is, and always shall be; and

Whereas Jesus of Nazareth, who was born of a virgin, in the city of Bethlehem (which is where David was born), has fulfilled these biblical prophecies, about who the Messiah would be, and what He would do, etc. (including overcoming, or conquering the Devil, and the Kingdom of Darkness, as well as conquering death itself); and

Whereas Jesus Christ is the Word of God (who is with God, and who also is God), to whom has been given all power and authority, over everything visible and invisible (being that He created and sustains everything), and who is also a man of war, who will never change (being the same yesterday, today, and forever); and

Whereas those who will not hearken to, or obey Jesus, shall be destroyed from among God's people (Jesus being the God of Israel, who extends mercy, but who will also not clear the guilty); and

Whereas Jesus, as the Lamb of God (who taketh away the sin of the world), has paid the price (having shed His blood on the cross), to be able to forgive, and bless whomsoever He chooses; and

Whereas Jesus has sent the Holy Spirit, to His obedient disciples, which not only leads them into all truth, but also approves them (with accompanying miracles, signs, wonders, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, etc.); and

Whereas God's children have a capacity to hear Jesus' voice (and they will not follow the voice of a stranger), and I have heard Jesus speaking to me (directly, indirectly, through His Word, or in a vision, etc.), saying, that He has forgiven me, that He will never leave or forsake me, and that He will be my Savior; and

Whereas Jesus has assured me, that all of the aforementioned is absolutely, and unequivocally true, I hereby pledge my eternal and preemptive love, and obedience, to Jesus Christ, the Messiah.
